Community Gatepath has been partnering with families to maximize their child's early development for nearly 40 years. Our team of experts includes speech, occupational and physical therapists as well as special education teachers. Music, movement, and inclusive preschool classes and parenting workshops are also offered at Gatepath's renovated Niall P. McCarthy Center for Children and Families in Burlingame. For more information and rates, please contact Michelle Kemper at 650-259-0186.
